

I believe that the do not call lists should be honored by telemarketers. I do not think the law should be weakened.